Contempt Petition No.110/2005
Hon'ble J.C.S. Rawat, J.

It was pointed out by the learned counsels that the petitioner has been promoted in pursuance of the order passed by the court. As such, the petition rendered infructuous.

In view of the above submission advanced by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the contempt petition is dismissed as infructuous.

The notices issued to the contemnors are hereby discharged.
